

DEAS VAIL

Desire

I don't know what love is. The truth is that I don't know to be honest.
It's possible that I...(round)
I don't want to turn away.
I don't want to be afraid.
I want you in every way.
To come back the way you came.

Fire...burning on desire.

You say you're running out of the truth.
And it contradicts the interest in you.

Sixteen

Just twenty-one but it feels like sixteen.
It's the moment of my life, I'm lost in a feeling
It's the season of discovering our best habits.
I'm searching for a reason to share my secrets.

We're lost and we want to be found.
We'll build it a kiss at a time and it might not fall down.
Love is in the hands that reach out.
Baby don't waste this chance cause it might not come back, come back around.

Love is taking what we have baby don't let go now.
Remember that it's hard because it's worthwhile
Loving isn't always an open doorway
It's giving up your heart in moments of faith.

All this growing up. Lately I feel like I've had enough.
Love is where we turn to get us through.
I will always turn and follow you. Because we're...

Quiet Like Sirens

Focus on the background.
Focus on the truth.
Waiting for the signals.
Wait, nobody move.

Give it just a moment
Listen to the silence
There's a paralyzing quiet like sirens.
You can forget leaving here like this.
I don't want to stand here
Don't you understand it's
Feeding on fear
Caught red handed.
Gotta get everybody out right now.

Breath until it's over.
Maybe make it through.
Like water through my fingers.
There's nothing I can do.

Summer Forgets Me

Better days are held in a photograph
Of summer escapes, daydreams and tourist traps
Take me back
I was never alone to carry the melody
It was never my own, it was always a part of me
Everything I need

You said the words and you didn't even speak
Baby let, let me down easy.
I see the tide is coming to get me
I don't know who you wanted me to be
I gave a lot but never what you need
Winter comes and summer forgets me

I know your face in millions of different ways
There's no escape from the memories of warmer days
One's I won't erase.

Blind from the flash, I'm frozen in time
Everything was perfect, everything was right
Now I'm lost in this world, all the colors seem wrong

Give it just a moment, just a moment

Summer days are held in a photograph
It's never the same, we can't go back

Towers

Our towers are all tall
They reach out into the sunlight
Like the arms from far below
They appear from worlds of endless night
I may never see the sun
While I'm lost within the shadows
Because our towers have become
The divorce of any love we know
Our friends become our foes

We'll stand together, together
Tear our devils down
And they will fall like feathers
Like feathers slowly to the ground

I can only see the stars
In the reflections on the windows
Of the walls the tower far
In all directions like a curtain closed
With nowhere left to go

Pulling Down The Sun

I close my eyes and I'm pulling down the sun.
Into my head where it burns me from the inside out
I melt away I don't know what I've become
I'm so afraid that I will never find the open arms of love.

Why can't I forget the words you, seem to forget not to say.

Oh, oh, oh...how did I become the one that's fallen?
Now everything I know is a version of what was...
Covered underneath the snow.
You have forgotten me and left me hopeless
Becoming what I know. I don't want to be all alone.

Not this again, with your cumulus demands.
It never ends, are you failing me again?

I'm fading away in the dark.

Children on their knees
Stolen from their homes and mothers
Lost among the weeds
They will never sing again

Bad Dreams

I am alone in a stranger's bad dream
I don't know what any of this means
I see the the signals, I feel the world bending
In any moment, it's breaking around me

It's a matter of time
What ya gonna to do if I step out of line?

I'm crossing fingers and hoping life works out
I'm crossing rivers, and hoping I don't drown.
I see the imitation, I feel the ending
Tell me what it means
Is my imagination the only meaning?

Everyone is over. Everyone is overcome.

Wake Up And Sleep

Why don't you know what you want?
Or have you given it thought?
We're in a sad sad situation
You're looking for what you already got
All this waiting around
For you to figure this out
I am a world of good temptation
Looking for you to come back around

Are you waking up just to fall asleep again?
Have you had enough? Come and take my hand. Won't you tell me...
Is it really love? If I take what I can get, then I've given up
Baby hold my hand, hold my hand

I'm not playing your games
They only get in our way
I set a course for intervention
Cause I have seen more than I can take

I'm not taking any chances

Common Sense

I'm drawing circles in the sand so I'll know where to land.
Cause we're falling in a foreign aircraft and we can't get out in time.
I'm sorry dear, if only we had know the sensitivity.
The case is closed. Before we knew it we were out of time.
I'm reliving the moment when you said you're doing fine.
All the while I'm imagining the best days of my life gone by.

I'm burning inside, burning inside

I'm pouring out, you're filling up.
I'm senseless doubt and you're scared of love.
Just one more dance with you and I'll watch those minutes fly.
Say you wanted to take it further, please say you really tried.
Love is always a fiery dragon whose turned its head to take my life.

These roses bleed under my feet. But you placed these steps for me.
And our progress halts and fades away for common sense.
Yes it's all for common sense.
Oh it's awful common sense.

The Meaning Of A Word

Is it the words or the voices?

The Right Mistakes

I wasn't afraid, until the day I saw you that way.
You're falling apart wondering how many second chances there are.
Grace, it doesn't work that way, and faith is not a step we take.

Here's our chance, we can fall in love again.
It won't have to be that way.
We can run from the lies we're living in.
And make all the right mistakes.
Come away.

Your choice is the same, but every time you make it you change.
If you give I will take, all the little failures away.

You're in the middle of a nightmare but you will never be alone there.

I just want you to know what healing is.
If you want we can start all over again.

Meeting In Doorways

Our time is almost lost
In any moment, when our fortunes are our costs, what will remain?
We will step into that fate and let it take us.
What if sorrow fades away if we can wait?

Ooh letting you go...oh, oh, oh
Ooh only to know...oh, oh, oh
Love's an unpredictable ghost...oh, oh, oh
Sometimes gone the day you need it the most....oh, oh, oh

Your leaves are falling dear. Our season's over.
I will wait for one more year when leaves will fall again.
Till then your memory comes and goes. That slow reminder,
That my eyes will finally close and not come back again.

I'm tossed about, I'll sail into the storm
If I've lost you now, these waves will carry me on.
