

FINDING FAVOUR

SHAKE THE WORLD

This is for my sisters that find yourselves confused. From the magazines and movie screens telling you how to be you. Oh don't you think it's time to just be free. Yeah and this is for my brothers trying hard to be a man. But that past you can't forget sure makes it hard for you to stand. Oh don't you think it's time to just be free.

Ah we're free to just believe God's grace will always be enough. Free to just be children wrapped up in His great love.

When the sons and daughters start singing this song then everybody all around 'em will be singing along. It's gonna shake the world. It's gonna shake the world. When we all start marching to the beat of the drum. That's moving to the rhythm of the Kingdom to come. It's gonna shake the world. It's gonna shake shake the world

Yeah with mercy as our melody and justice as our guide. We're gonna sing to all the broken that the world has cast aside. Singing don't you think it's time to just be free. Our God's the only God bringing hope to all the lost. There's healing and forgiveness in the anthem of the cross.

Darkness has to tremble at the sound of His great name. Every king, every ruler, bows down at His great fame. There's nothing that can silence the song of the redeemed, oh.

LOVE STEPPED IN

He was preachin' down off 3rd and main when I was passin' by. He was walking talking kinda crazy warnin' us all 'bout the end of time. So out of the crowd, I just asked him how could God love a mess like me. He said, "Son, I'm a preacher now but this ain't who I used to be" He said

You'll never know. You'll never know just how far love has brought me. You'll never know who I used to be. I've been around and I've been down to the bottom of hell and back again. I was almost out I was at my end when love stepped in.

She works downtown at the halfway house almost every day. All the love she has she just gives away. So I asked her why she spends so much time on the broken and the poor. She just smiled at me and said 'I'm not who I was before'. She said

I look back sometimes over where I've been and just how far I've come. Since the day that preacher told me about His amazing love. I was lost and alone but the lights came on when hope set my heart free. In the darkest hour grace got a hold of me.

SLIP ON BY

Early morning, by the riverside saw an old man, waiting for a bite. We started talking, and he took me back in time. He said "I was young, and thought I'd always be, then I woke up, now I'm 83. There's so much I missed, oh how I wish I could get back all that time I wasted"

I see the tears of a young bride, the morning that we had our first fight, I should've held her tight. And on the day that my momma died, I hung up the phone and never said goodbye. Don't let it slip on, don't let it slip on, don't let it slip on by.

Well he looked up, tears in his eyes, said "I'm not sure, if you were lookin' for advice, there's just something about you that reminds me of me. It ain't easy, always lookin' back, but it seems these days that it's all I have. What hurts me the most, is knowin' what could have been, and if I listen real close, sometimes I can.

Hear the sound of my little boy sayin', "Daddy can you come play with me" but I was too busy. Then one day my baby grew up and went to war, I never thought he would be gone in the blink of an eye. So don't let it slip on, don't let it slip on, don't let it slip on by.

I shook the old man's hand, and I thanked him. And I drove home as fast as I could go, just to let her know that I need her, that I love her, that I'm never gonna let another moment like this slip on by.

HALLELUJAH WE SHALL RISE

I can almost hear Your voice. I can almost hear Your song. Singing out from the heavens. That it's time to come home.

Hallelujah! We shall rise. Hallelujah! We shall sing. When we hear Your voice cry. We will wake from the night. Hallelujah! We shall rise.

You will be brighter than the sun. It will be darkness no more. What a day that will be. When we finally meet You Lord.

We will rise above the heavens. We will rise above it all. We will run like a child into Your open arms. When we get to where we're going we'll have all that we've been waiting for.

When we finally reach that place. When we fall before Your throne. There will be no more pain.
And all our sorrows will be gone.

When we hear Your voice cry. We will wake from the night. Hallelujah! We shall rise.

HERO

She's a soldier and a fighter on the front lines of a war. Caught in the shrapnel and the battle.
Kneeling down on her bedroom floor. Standing between you and the fallout. She will not give up this ground. Oh no, you know she will never back down.

Cause somewhere right now Someone is fighting for you. They're crying out. Won't stop until they breakthrough. You see an unassuming ordinary simple soul. And you'd never know somewhere right now you've got a hero.

Have you ever been there when the darkness almost closes in? Then all of the sudden there's a moment when the light comes breaking in. And out of the shadows comes a warrior with the faith to overcome. And you lift your eyes to where your help comes from

When you feel alone and think nobody cares just know that you are always in my prayers.

I AM

While you were sleeping. While the whole world was dreaming. I never left your side. And I can promise I won't be leaving. I watch you breathing. I hear you singing. I feel your heart beat and I know every pain. That you are feeling.

I am the comfort when you are afraid. I am the refuge when you call my name . I was, I'll be, I am.
I hold the future, and I hold the past . I am the first and I am the last. I was, I'll be, I am.

I know you're broken. Busted wide open. You've fallen to pieces and you feel there's nothing left you can hope in. But I'll hold you together. You're mine forever. I paid the price for you and I won't let you go, no never.

I am the Father, I am the Son. I am the Spirit, I am the One. I was, I'll be, I am. I wore the thorns and I took the nails.
