HOUSE OF HEROES' SUBURBA OUT NOW ON GOTEE RECORDS

WITH FIRST WEEK SALES OF OVER 7,600, AND CHARTING AT #48 AT BILLBOARD TOP 200 AND #8 ON BILLBOARD DIGITAL SALES

BAND SECURES TOUR WITH THE ALMOST

"House Of Heroes have always flown under the radar. The group's fourth full-length, Suburba, shows off what the masses have been missing: catchy pop songs with well-written lyrics...one of music's hidden gems." – Alternative Press

Gotee Records band House of Heroes recent release Suburba produced by Mark Lee Townsend (Relient K, Deas Vail) and mixed by J.R. McNeely (The Almost, Paramore) has a exciting first week with 7,646 units sold and entering the Billboard's Top 200 at #48 and Billboard's Digital chart at #8.

"We're blown away by the support Suburba has received from critics and especially our fans! It really feels like we've got a lot of people in our corner this time around and a lot of people pulling for us to be successful with this release. There is a cool kinship we feel with the fans. Like we both have ownership over this thing, and that makes us feel responsible to work even harder to be on the road a lot and be a better band every day" – States frontman Tim Skipper

Suburba harkens back to days when music was wide eyed and meant a whole lot more. Think classic Bruce Springsteen and Tom Petty, The Who, E.L.O. with a touch of Meatloaf. Broad and anthemic at certain moments, yet vulnerable and intimate at others.

"Huge, exhilarating and fanciful, the album is a clear-cut favorite for end of the year lists, a true stud and stalwart; an instant album of the year candidate." – Indievision
