WITH YOU

My left brain is racin' free. And ADD's been chasin me all day
Wait, what did You just say? (okay, okay)
See I misplaced my master plan. Courtesy of my attention span. But I'ma be okay.
Just need a little You and me time. Hit the rewind. It all comes into view.

When I'm with You. When I'm with You.
It's like anything, everything that's been weighing on me falls by the wayside.
When I'm with You. I love being with You

I smile when You say my name. Cause no one's ever said it quite the same
I listen for it everyday (You know, You know)
On cue, it's You perfect timing. Dusting off that silver lining for me
So I can finally see. Yeah It's like a cool breeze blown through my hot pink hair. On a
Sunday afternoon

When I'm with You. When I'm with You
And anything, everything that's been weighing on me falls by the wayside.
When I'm with You. love being with You.

I can't imagine life without You. Could not make it on my own.
I could write a thousand lines why being with You feels like home.
So when You offered me salvation how could I ever say no?
I'll never find a greater beauty than the beauty that You're bringing Bringing to my soul. My soul

When I'm with You. When I'm with You
It's like anything, anything everything, everything's fallin' by the wayside.
It's like anything, anything everything, everything falls by the wayside.
When i'm with You...
I love being with You
