"Farewell Flight is almost the definition of the bands I am constantly searching for. The songs are authentic Rock songs done at the band's own pace and not rushed, not overly polished and not pretentious in anyway. The best song writers are the ones who write every kid's soundtrack while simply trying to express their own emotions, mingling them between a universal melody. That's what the 'Out For Blood' album does" – Liisten.com

Hailing from Harrisburg, PA, Farewell Flight is singer Luke Foley, bassist Robbe Reddinger, lead guitarist Brian Campbell, and drummer Marc Prokopchak. The band is looking forward to a late summer tour in support of their debut CD for Mono vs. Stereo Out For Blood produced and mixed by Grammy-winners Mitch Dane and Vance Powell, OUT TODAY digitally and soon to be at all tour stops, tour dates kick off on August 12.

"as infectious and charismatic as anything currently circling the blogosphere"

– Resident Media Pundit

The band has spent the last 5 years criss-crossing the country playing nearly 700 shows, and they have no plans of slowing down. With an extensive touring schedule and DIY work ethic, they have already garnered an underground buzz and they are determined to continue to bring their music to the masses, the band strives to impact others with thought provoking lyrics while still entertaining them with an infectious fun live show.
