Gotee Records' Relient K: The First Three Gears (2000-2003) Hits Retailers This Week

Band Kicks Off "The Spring Tour" with Paramore on April 26

NASHVILLE, Tenn...April 23, 2010... Relient K's 51 song, three-disc set, Relient K: The First Three Gears (2000-2003), became available at retail stores and digital retailers worldwide on Tuesday April 20, just days before the band opens for Paramore on "The Spring Tour."

With a whopping 51 songs, including five rare bonus tracks, the compilation is a three-disc set of the first three Relient K albums, RELIENT K, THE ANATOMY OF THE TONGUE IN CHEEK (GOLD EDITION/RIAA certified gold), and TWO LEFTS DON'T MAKE A RIGHT BUT THREE DO (GOLD EDITION/RIAA certified gold), and includes hits like "My Girlfriend," "Sadie Hawkins Dance," "Chap Stick, Chapped Lips and Things Like Chemistry" and more. Digital outlets such as Amazon and iTunes® will additionally include three music videos ("My Girlfriend," "Chap Stick, Chapped Lips and Things Like Chemistry," "Pressing On").

After returning from a recent string of dates in Japan, "The Spring Tour" with Paramore and Relient K will kick off in Knoxville, Tenn. on April 26 and wrap in mid-May.

Relient K's current single "I Don't Need A Soul" is currently No. 4 on the Christian Rock radio charts, with "Therapy" going for adds at the Christian CHR format on April 23.

Relient K has been making the real thing since 1997, when Thiessen and Hoopes formed the band in high school. In the decade since, they've released five full-length albums (three are certified Gold), five EPs and a Christmas record. They have toured the globe, and racked up several hit singles, a Grammy nomination, two Dove Awards and performances on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno, Late Night with Conan O'Brien and Jimmy Kimmel Live. The Los Angeles Times has praised Relient K for "its smart blend of punk pop and power pop, weaving together influences as diverse as the Beach Boys, Blink-182 and Fountains of Wayne" while Spin noted, "Few bands play punk-influenced modern rock as proficiently."
